SATURDAY NIGHT'S TRAGEDY

Respectable Woman Killed by a Worthless Husband

MURDERER CAUGHT AND JAILED

The Community Shocked and Stirred over the Red Handed Deed of the Assassin.

The foulest, blackest deed which has ever blotted the annals of Greensboro history, was perpetrated in this city on Saturday night, with the particulars of which our citizens are more or less familiar by this time.

Twenty-two years ago Robert S. Ryan led to hymen's alter Eliza A. Jennings, whom he then and there took a solemn vow to protect and love through life. How well he kept that pledge is shown by the cold-blooded and heartless manner in which he took her life Saturday night.

There have been numerous reports circulated as to the facts in the case. After the excitement has somewhat subsided The Telegram gives what is as near as can be ascertained, the real facts in the awful tragedy, avoiding as far as possible anything that would further inflame or excite the people to attempt acts of violence.

Mrs. Ryan lived on Ashe street, near the A. M. E church, where she conducted a boarding house and took in sewing to support herself and children, of whom there are seven. Her husband, Robert S. Ryan, or "Sonly" Ryan as he is nicknamed has long had an unsavory reputation, being a thriftless, worthless fellow, often taking the hard earned shillings of his industrious wife and spending the money for drink or throwing it away in gambling dens. Several times he has been in jail for his rascality and has escaped with light punishment. He even professed reform and found ready friends to assist him in establishing a legitimate, respectable business. The effort to make a man of him proved futile for he was soon again at his old tricks.

Some months ago he left Greensboro a fugitive from justice and spent part of the time in New Jersey and Pennsylvania, returning to this State in September. It is learned that he has been spending the time since his return at the residence of Jess Dillon, about three miles from High Point. So many were his wrongs and grievous his mistreatment toward his wife and family, that they had refused to live with him any more. He had written letters to them asking to be allowed to return, but the brave woman firmly refused.

THE CRIME.

On Saturday night just after dark, while the thick mist of rain caused the electric lights to cast weird looking streams of light into the inky blackness, he returned to the home where his sworn partner for life was struggling to make a respectable living for herself and children. He returned disguised in a woman's skirt, shawl and hat. Mrs. Ryan was just starting to a near-by grocery store to settle her weekly bill, accompanied by her little boy who was just in front of her.

"Sonly" Ryan saw and recognized his little boy and asked him if the boarders were in. The little fellow recognized his father's voice and told him that two of them were gone. This was on the sidewalk just outside the gate. Stepping inside the gate Sonly met his wife and caught her in his arms. As he did so the little boy ran past them and into the house screaming, "Father is out yonder and he's going to kill mama." Ed. McDonald, a boarder, started out, followed by Mrs. Ryan's oldest daughter. They reached the door just as the shooting took place. Holding his wife in his left arm Sonly fired three shots in rapid succession, two of them taking effect. He ran and called out, "Catch her, she's falling."

The murdered woman was immediately carried into the house, medical help hastily summoned, but to no avail. Her life ebbed rapidly away and in thirty minutes she was dead.

THE CHASE.

The news spread like a prairie fire and soon was all over town. Chief of Police very promptly offered a reward of one hundred dollars for the capture of the murder, and joined in the chase himself. There were conflicting rumors as to the route taken by Sonly. One report had it that he had gone up by the coal chute and men were dispatched in that direction, and learned that he had been seen by a negro. For a while the trail was lost and Chief Rees and Policeman Scott were talking of sending a man to Jess Dillon's, his lurking place.

But it seems the murderer contemplated further mischief, as he returned and entered Frazier's hardware store on South Elm street, presumably to buy cartridges as his pistol was afterwards found to be empty. In the store he ran on County Treasurer John A. Hodgin, against whom, it is said, he had made threats, who, seeing his pistol, grappled with him and succeeded in getting hold of the pistol, which he wrenched from his grasp. Sonly slipped out of the scuffle, cleared the door and made a break down the street. At this juncture Officers Rees and Scott were near the corner of McAuley's bar and seeing two men running took after one of them, but saw their mistake and turned on the other one who proved to be Sonly Ryan. He dashed around the corner between the Southside Pharmacy and the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley railroad. Mr. Scott kept the track thinking the man would attempt to escape over the embankment, while Mr. Rees followed close behind Sonly. While running almost parallel with Ryan Mr. Scott fired three shots at him without effect.

Excitement ran high. Crowds of people ran from every direction. Mr. Scott leaped up the embankment and joined Mr. Rees just as he nailed his man, and together they secured him. In his hand he held something which the officers thought was a knife, but which turned out to be a bottle partly filled with laudanum.

He was carried to jail, followed by hundreds of people, and when near the Benbow a brother of the murdered woman attempted to shoot the prisoner but was prevented. Talk of lynching were freely indulged in and late at night a party of disguised persons went so far as to advance on the jail and demand admission which was firmly refused and the crowd dispersed. Last night again there was talk of a lynching bee but it all fell through, cooler heads and wiser counsel evidently outweighing the anger and determination of the men who sought to take the law into their own hands.

IN THE MURDERER'S CELL.

A Telegram man visited Ryan last night at the jail just twenty-four hours after the murder. He was lying down and when spoken to only raised to a half sitting and half reclining posture. He did not care to talk, but seemed in a repentant mood. He was asked:

"Why did you shoot your wife?"

He hesitated so long the reporter thought he had gone to sleep and repeated the question. Another long pause and as an audible sigh escaped his lips, answered:

"I don't care to say anything on that subject."

"Are you sorry you committed this deed?" was asked him.

"I certainly am," he replied, "and if I had not been in a manner drunk I would not have done it."

This statement is rather hard to believe when you consider that he had previously, and at different dates, written letters showing that the murder was planned and premeditated.

"What will be your defense?" the reporter asked.

"I shall not make any defense," he replied.

"Have you secured counsel?" was asked.

"No, I shall not employ a lawyer," he answered.

We then asked him: "Are you not afraid that a party of men will come here, take you out and lynch you?" to which he replied.

"No, I am not afraid. If they want to kill me that way, it is all right with me."

"Do you think you deserve the penalty of your crime?" we asked.

"I certainly do," he replied.

He seemed to have given himself up to his fate and was totally indifferent as to what was going on.

FUNERAL OF MRS. RYAN.

Mrs. Ryan's funeral was held from St. Andrew's Episcopal church at 3:30 yesterday afternoon, conducted by Rector Miller. A large concourse of the friends and relatives of the deceased were in attendance, and a number followed the remains to Greene Hill cemetery where they were laid to rest.

Thus ends a tragedy which has stirred the souls of strong men in Greensboro as they have, perhaps, never been stirred before. The Telegram has always been opposed to lynch law or mob violence, and it is gratifying to know that though the crime was dastardly, cowardly and cold-blooded, no additional blot has been stamped upon the fair name of the city by lynch law. Court is in session now and the criminal will be given a speedy trial.

THE CAUSE FOR THE DEED.

On this point the prisoner refuses to talk. He charged infidelity against his wife, in a letter addressed to the Record, but not a single individual has been found who believes one word of it. The acquaintances of the dead woman are unanimous in saying that her character is unimpeachable and that she was a modest and consistent christian.

AN EXTENSION OF TIME

The Petrified Woman Viewed by Many of Our Citizens

WILL REMAIN ONLY A FEW DAYS

Longer on Exhibition in Our City. One of the Great Wonders of the Nineteenth Century.

By special request the "Petrified Woman Exhibit" will continue here Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. So far the patronage has been good, thus warranting the extension of time. It is undoubtedly the greatest curiosity that has ever visited Greensboro, if not any city in the United States, and those who fail to see the "Beautiful Woman Turned to Stone" will certainly miss a chance of a lifetime. Dime tickets will be issued to school school children, thus enabling them to see the scientific wonder.

MOORE COUNTY GOLD.

Dr. L. W. Hunter Has Been Drinking Water from a Gold Mine.

For some years past Dr. L. W. Hunter, of Sardis, has been drinking water from a gold mine, but until recently he has contented himself with taking it in the inner man.

A few days ago he decided that gold was a very good thing to carry around even in one's pockets, and decided to develop his holdings.

Yesterday he brought five tons of ore to the reduction works of Captain John Wilkes, from which he hopes to get encouraging results. This supply is from a large vein near his home place, and from present prospects there is an almost unexhaustible quantity. A number of northern prospectors have recently inspected this property with a view of purchasing, but Dr. Hunter prefers to thoroughly investigate its value before making a trade.—Charlotte Observer.

Baptist Statistics.

The Baptist State Convention will meet in its sixty-seventh annual session December 9th, with the Church at Oxford. Dr. A. C. Barron, of Charlotte, will preach the sermon. Rev. J. E. White, corresponding secretary, gives out the following statement:

Reports now in hand show churches, 1,400; membership, 140,000; preachers, 700; baptized during the year, 8,500. Financial statistics: Missions—State, home and foreign, $30,000; education of ministers, $2,400; orphanage $15,000 Total for all objects, $325,000.

A TRIAL UNPRECEDENTED.

It Consumed About a Quarter of an Hour.

MURDERER RYAN PLEADS GUILTY

To the Charge of Murder in the First Degree--Judge Adams Will Sentence Him.

Never perhaps in the annals of criminal jurisprudence in this State has there been a trial so brief and so dramatic where a human life was involved. After disposing of the preliminaries this morning Ryan the wife murderer was brought into court and arraigned at 12:30 P. M. It had taken the grand jury only 30 minutes to return a true bill. The prisoner was arraigned amid a breathless silence. The court room crowded to suffocation leaned forward in breathless expectancy. The prisoner was asked if he had counsel. He replied that he did not have and did not want any. Notwithstanding the judge appointed Col. James T. Morehead and P. D. Satchwell to defend him. He retired to the outroom with his counsel. In a few moments they returned and Col. Morehead speaking for counsel said that he was placed in the peculiar position of wishing to enter one plea while his client wished to enter another as he could not conscientiously enter the plea his client wished to enter he asked along with Mr. Satchwell to be excused. He was excused.

Judge Adams then expostulated with the prisoner telling him that learned counsel had been appointed to defend him and he should follow their advice. The prisoner was not merely cool, he was absolutely indifferent. It might have been a man in Europe whose life was at stake for all the concern he showed. He stood up chewing his tobacco stolidly and replied: "I do not want counsel. I have committed the deed. It is unnecessary to consume the time of the court and worry the lawyers. I committed the deed. I am willing to pay the penalty of the act with my life. If I had a hundred lives I should be willing to spend them all in the same way." The Judge again attempted to influence him to accept counsel but he persistently refused. His lips were closed with an expression of immovable determination. He would listen to neither Judge nor counsel. He therefore entered the plea of guilty to the charge of murder in the first degree and was remanded to jail. The entire trial had consumed about fifteen minutes. All that remains is for the criminal to be sentenced unless his plea is set aside.

SCUFFLE BELOW STAIRS.

As the prisoner was being taken back to jail Ben Jennings, a brother of the murdered woman, half drunk, made a rush at the prisoner. Officer Scott collared him and Henry Heath and Henry Melvin, bystanders threw him down and sat upon him till his militancy was soothed. Meantime he brandished a bottle of whiskey which was the only weapon he seemed to have. He was not even arrested.

JUDGE ADAMS INTERVIEWED.

A Telegram reporter saw Judge Adams at the McAdoo and he said it was the first instance in his knowledge where a man had plead guilty to a capital felony. He said that out of a sentiment of humanity he had insisted on Ryan's accepting counsel and being tried in the regular way. He found the prisoner's conduct very puzzling. He will probably be sentenced at the opening of court in the morning.

State Furniture Factories.

The labor bureau has completed its report on furniture factories. It reports 35 in operation. High Point leads in number. The average wages paid are 97½ cents a day, children 07½ cents. Approximately there are now 1,359 men and 262 children employed in the factories.

The new cases in the state museum, all of quarter-sawed oak, show both the quality of the native wood and the excellence of the manufacture and good artistic effects.

COURT SESSION.

One Hundred and Three Cases now on the Docket.

The session of superior court began this morning, Judge Spencer B. Adams presiding.

The following grand jury was empanelled:

W A Fields, foreman; D F Hoffines, W G Hazlewood, W W Shields, J D Goldson, John C Self, C S Weaver, John C Burick, W T McChristian, J L Lewis, C F Johnston, W G Wiley, C C Johnston, Edwin Hodgin, A L Bryan, H W Gray, D C Aldridge, A L Coble.

ADDRESS TO GRAND JURY.

Judge Adams' address to the grand jury was clear, forcible and had the right ring. He said:

Every good man is willing for the law to take its course. If a body of men go to a jail and take out a poor fellow creature and lynch him they establish a precedent the community can never outlive.

No man is safe if the men are allowed to band together and take men from prison.

Talked to the Lynchers.

Mayor Nelson went down to the meeting place of the would-be lynching party last night and talked quietly with them, urging them to disperse, assuring them that Solicitor Bynum would lose no time in bringing on the trial of Ryan.

Policemen Whittington and Pearce also talked to some of them along the same lines. They believed it and dispersed, and they were not deceived, as the report of the trial, published elsewhere, will show.

Auditor Ayer's Gab.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer interviewed Auditor Ayer with the following result:

Auditor Ayer said today: "It looks like we will have to lick the democrats again, and if so, the ease with which it can be done is the only contemptible thing about it." Auditor Ayer was asked what he meant by "we," and replied, "The folks." Then he was asked if he did not think the white people would get together, and replied, "The white folks will rule this State as long as they are here. It seems from the experience of the next two years that the right kind of white people will rule it. You can draw your own conclusions."

Shot Stonewall Jackson.

Col. Olds writes: A man named Waddell, at the soldiers' home in Raleigh, is one of the five North Carolinians who were guarding the road in wilderness and shot and mortally wounded Stonewall Jackson.

Waddell tells the story interestingly General Jackson had ordered them to keep the road clear and to shoot without warning or halting anybody. Half an hour later he evidently forgot his instructions and rode along tha road. After the shooting Waddell saw him and asked: "What will they do with us?" "You did only your duty and obeyed orders," replied General Jackson, "and I will mention that in my letter to General Lee."

Facts Worth Studying.

If the Southern Stock-Mutual pays no larger dividends than the 20 per cent. now paid, and the business increases during the next seven years in the same ratio it has increased during the last three years, the actual saving for the ten years to policy-holders in North and South Carolina will be $194,822.00, and to the policy-holders in Greensboro alone, $26,237.00. Besides this the Company's assets (reinsurance reserve and surplus) represented by still larger figures will be kept at home and invested in the state. A VENEERING PROCESS.

The Telegram has several times called attention to the flagrant disregard of the civil service law by Collector Harkins of our western district. The state correspondent of some of the large northern dailies sent them the facts. Now comes the Internal Revenue Bureau and asserts that injustice has been done Collector Harkins.

It would make interesting reading to expose wherein the injustice lies. There was never a schemer or a political heeler yet exposed who did not set up this same claim of injustice. It is something a little out of the ordinary for a dignified "Bureau," which is supposed to be non-partisan, to stoop to varnish the petty partisanship of a petty underling with official approval of his actions and official denial of what the citizens of this State know to be undeniable.

It is not too much to say that the citizens of his own State are quite as capable of determining whether Mr. Harkins has been offensively partisan in his zeal to oust men in the service as the "Bureau." We know in this State that men have been dismissed from the service whose only fault was that they were democratic appointees.

This action is only another of the many instances the republican party has given that it is partisan first, patriotic afterward; that the republican party is of first, the republic of secondary importance.

It is the old attempt of the party to draw unto itself all that large number who would sell "their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor" (if they had any) for one small mess of pottage. It is a notice to the hungry camp follower of every party that in the republican fold his wants will be placed above the interests of the public if only he will fall to and help intrench the party in power.

This action is Plattism, Crokerism in National politics: The perpetuation and supremacy of the unfittest.

A MATTER FOR A JURY.

The crime of Saturday evening was one of the most dastardly in the history of the county or State.

The evidence and the admission of the criminal show that it was deliberately planned. It was cold blooded murder in the first degree. Such beyond doubt a jury will declare it.

There was an attempt to lynch the criminal but happily it was farcical. There was behind it no public opinion. It is a credit to Greensboro that such was the case.

The crime was purely individual. It left no stain upon the community. A lynching would be a common disgrace.

It is natural that friends and relatives of the murdered woman should feel incensed. Let them remember that the law not they must punish. Any attempt to do violence to the prisoner helps his cause and puts them in the wrong.

Wait for the verdict of a jury. That it the method of redress in this State and in this community. It is the only one.

There is no danger at present that violence will be attempted. Only it is well to look at it in a dry light. The man who should help to lynch Ryan would place himself on a level with him. So, let the law take its course.

We are in receipt of the Palatka (Fla.) Times-Herald, of December 3d, announcing that Mr. Chas. B. Kendall, formerly of The Telegram, is editor and proprietor of the same. It is a healthy looking paper and we are sure it will remain such under the care of Mr. Kendall, whom the best wishes of The Telegram follow.

The latest fad of the Hon. Jacob S. Coxey is that the government should provide work for everybody. The Hon. Jacob should be treated to an extra supply while he suffers, for the sake of his neighbors, a simultaneous dimunition in his quota of wind. The result would be pleasing.

That the supply of penurious dukes who are willing to be replenished is running low, is evidenced by the latest American heiress who was compelled to take a brother of the Sultan.

The fact that votes sold for from five to fifteen dollars in the Augusta mayoralty race is likely to have a strong bullish effect on the population of that city.

This country may be given to overmuch "chin music," but it has never kicked up quite the row over the variety that Austria is doing.

Mr. Rhinelander, of New York, who shot the family lawyer, is the only man on record who came out even with that functionary.

The one thing consoling about the session of congress is that it will take Mr. Marion Butler out of the state.

The country will await with grave apprehension the saving process of the congressional solons.

The most prominent phase of the sealing question is that it continues to be negotiated.

Tom Reed will now proceed to show the Emperor of Austria how it is done.

SNAKE CHARMER KILLED.

Simon Sugg Let His Snake Bite Him to Prove he Had Divine Protection

Louisville, Dec. 5.—Simon Sugg, 50 years of age, who has traveled all over Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois, giving exhibitions of snake charming and acting as an itinerant evangelist, died from the bite of one of his pets, at Stonefort, Ill.

At his exhibitions he would let anything from a copperhead to a moccasin bite him without extra charge, saying they could not hurt him.

In his assortment of snakes he had rattlers, spreading adders, copperheads and contonmouths. He declared that the Bible taught that the consecrated or the chosen of God could do anything without fear or trembling. To prove this he permitted the snake to bite him.

It was a newly acquired snake that took his life.

Durham and Charlotte Railroad.

Concerning this railroad the Chatam Record says: "Capt. John L. Tull, the chief engineer of the Durham & Charlotte Railroad Company is now going through the country between Gulf and Durham for the purpose of obtainining the right of way for the proposed railroad. We are pleased to learn that most of the land owners appreciate the advantages and benefits to be derived from the proposed road and are there some, however, we regret hear, who are not so appreciative or public spirited and are demanding big pay for the right of way. Fortunately the route has not yet been located, and the preliminary line recently surveyed will not be adopted if the right of way costs too much."

HARRIS' LITHIA WATER

OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

Contains More Lithia than any Natural Lithia Springs Water on the market. There are a great many so-called Lithia Waters on the market whose analysis show that they contain only traces of lithia. It seems that if you want a Lithia Water you should examine the analysis of the waters and find out how much they contain. The analysis of Harris Lithia Water was made by the noted R. Ogden Dosemus, M. D., LL. D., Professor of Chemistry and Physics, College City, of New York. If the Harris Lithia Water is not Superior to any other water on the market, do you think that the following noted physicians from all parts of the country would give their testimonial, stating it at it was? They have no interest in the Harris Lithia Water.

After a long and varied experience in the use of mineral waters from many sources, both foreign and domestic, I am fully persuaded that the Harris Lithia Water possesses efficacy in the treatment of afflictions of the Kidney and Bladder unequalled by any other water of which I have made trial.

This opinion is based upon observation of its effects upon my patients for the past three years, during which time I have prescribed it freely and almost uniformly with benefit in the medical maladies above mentioned.

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 8, 1892. A. N. TALLEY, M. D.

Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I have found the use of the water from your Lithia Spring in South Carolina so efficacious in the case of a young lady patient of mine, who has suffered for years with Diabetes, with all its different attendants, that I want to add my testimonial to the many you already have. The patient I refer to has used the water freely at home for scarcely a month now, with more beneficial results than from months spent at the different noted lithia springs in different parts of the United States, besides long continued use of the same waters at home. Others of my patients and friends are now using the same with best results. I cordially recommend it to all suffering from similar diseases. Very respectfully yours,

THOMAS S. POWELL, M. D., Pres. Southern Medical College, Atlanta, Ga.

Read what Prof. Jos. Jones, of Tulane University, of New Orleans, has to say in regard to the virtues of Harris Lithia Water:

New Orleans, La., Aug. 13, 1894.

Harris Lithia Water Co., Harris Springs, S. C.:

Gentlemen—I have used, with great benefit, the case of water sent me, and regard it with favor, being highly charged with Lithia.

Respectfully, JOS. JONES, M. D.

June 12, 1893. Mr. J. T. Harris, Harris Springs, S. C.:

Dear Sir—I have used the Harris Lithia Spring Water for the past year in all renal troubles, with prompt and efficient effect. In gouty and rheumatic troubles I consider this water superior to the Buffalo Lithia Spring water. I suffered from an attack of rheumatism for eight months, during which time I drank the Buffalo Lithia water constantly for four months without effect. In November last I had a case of Harris Lithia Water sent to me, and after drinking it for about three or four weeks, the pain and stiffness left my limbs and I have not been troubled since. I feel that I can safely recommend the Harris Lithia Water.

Respectfully,

Savannah, Ga. R. B. HARRIS, M. D.

"The Harris Lithia Water is, in my opinion, unexcelled for those ailments requiring the salts it contains. THEO. LAMB, M. D.

Professor Diseases of Chest and Principles of Medicine, Medical Department, University of Georgia.

Asheville, N. C. April, 24, 1893.

An extended clinical use of the Harris Lithia Water prompts me to the statement that I regard it as one of the best, if not the best Lithia Water known to the profession. In the condition of Phosphatic Urine, its action is marvelous. Its use in the Rheumatic and Gouty Diseases afford me more comfort than either the Buffalo or Londonderry Waters. Very truly yours,

JOHN HEY WILLIAMS, M. D.

Atlanta, Ga., April 20, 1897.

I have used for sometime Harris Lithia Water in my family, and also with my patients, and find it is the best Water I ever used in catarrhal condition of the uretus and bladder. It is also a good diuretic Water.

G. G. ROY, M. D.

Charleston, S. C., Sept. 20th 1893.

Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I am constrained to send you this testimonial of the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water. The value of the testimonial may be enhanced from the fact that it goes to you unsolicited. As a friend of humanity, I feel bound to withhold my knowledge of its virtues no longer. I have been using the water for more than a year with marked benefit. To any one troubled with kidney disorder, it is the remedy par excellence. I prefer it to the Buffalo Lithia Water. Very truly yours,

A. C. KAUFMAN,

President Vanderbilt Benevolence Association of Charleston, S. C.

Mr. J. T. Harris, Proprietor Harris Lithia Springs:

Dear Sir—While it is contrary to my custom to give testimonials to remedial agents, I feel free to attest to the efficacy of the Harris Lithia Water (when used in large quantities) in the Rheumatic and Gouty Diatheses; in Inflammations of the Bladder, and in all cases where there is an excess of solids in the urine. Yours respectfully,

Columbia, S. C. GEO. HOWE, M. D.

The waters of the Lithia Springs are odorless, free from color, with a pleasant saline taste, rather palatable. When taken in considerable quantity, they do not nauseate, purge or produce any feeling of discomfort. I find from the analysis of the waters, they contain Chloride Sodium, Carb. Potash, Carb. Soda, Carb. Lithia, Carb. Iron and Sulphate Magnesia. These waters act directly upon the mucous coating of the stomach and alimentary canal, they are powerfully alterative and tonic. They are everything to inflamed or irritated surfaces. They act upon the blood, changing it from acid to alkaline. In Indigestion, Catarrh of Stomach and Gastralgia, supplemented with a proper diet they are a certain cure. The action upon the kindneys is marked. The Sodium, Potash, Soda, Lithia, are the best solvents of uric acid, all calculi of an acid character, whether litary or cystic, are steadily dissolved. I am confident that the profession will find it very useful in cases where this class of water is required. Respectfully,

Waterboro, S. C., April 19, 1892. J. Q. WILBUR, M. D.

Camden, S. C., Aug 24, 1893.

Mr. J. T. Harris:—Dear Sir: I enclose you in this letter several small pieces of calculi passed by a patient of mine, who has been taking the "Harris Springs Water" for the past eighteen months. This gentleman has been a sufferer for two or three years with Cystitis, caused from stone. The solvent power of the water has been, I think, clearly demonstrated in this case. All these fragments were passed in two evacuations from his bladder in the past ten days. I consider Harris Spring Water a most excellent remedy in the Uric Acid Diathesis, also in Chronic Dyspeptic troubles.

I am, yours respectfully, A. W. BURNET. M. D.

Chester S. C.

Dear Sir: For the past eight months I have been using Harris Lithia Water with the most excellent results, where I have been able to get my patients to drink a sufficient quantity daily. The carbonated has no equal in Gastric disturbances. It is an excellent table water. It is a pleasant laxative, and is a sure cure for flatulent dyspepsia. S. M. DAVEGA, M. D.

Atlanta, Ga., April 24, 1897.

Mr. J. T. Harris, Harris Springs, South Carolina:

Dear Sir: I have found Harris Lithia Water an exceedingly valuable remedy for persons suffering from Kidney and Bladder Troubles. Therefore take pleasure in recommending it. Respectfully,

JAS. F. ALEXANDER, President Board Health.

Baltimore, June 24, 1896.

J. T. Harris, Esq., Harris Spring, South Carolina:

Dear Sir: I have been using Harris Lithia Water for sometime, and I will say to you that in my opinion that the Harris Lithia Water that is by far the best Lithia Water that I have ever used, and that it has done me a great deal good, and I think it a most valuable remedy.

R. C. HOFFMAN, Pres. S. A. L. R. R.

Atlanta, Ga, April 20. 1897.

Harris Lithia Water Co.,

Gentlemen:—I have used Harris Lithia Water for the past two years and find it a most excellent remedy for dyspepsia and other stomach troubles. I cheerfully recommend it CHAS. M. NEEL, Pres. Ga. Military Institute.

A Fair Proposition.

We will guarantee that one glass of HARRIS' LITHIA CARBONATED WATER will relieve any case of indigestion in one minutes' time or money refunded, or if taken after each meal will cure the worst case of indigestion. You see what the noted Dr. Davega, of Chester, S. C., has to say in regard to it, and there is not a physician in South Carolina who stands higher in the profession than he does, and besides you lose nothing by giving it a trial, as our agents are authorized to refund the money to any responsible person who will not admit that he was benefited by it.

LAURA KERR, Executrix of J. W. Kerr, deceased.

MAHOMED ALI'S BETROTHAL.

Khedive May Not Consent to His Brother's Marriage to an American.

London, Dec. 5—The Chronicle's Cairo correspondent says that the consent of the Khedive to the marriage of his only brother, Mahomed Ali, to an American lady depends entirely upon the sex of the child of which the Khedivah is expected daily to be accouched.

If another daughter is born questions of state will interfere with Mahomed Ali's choice.

At the beginning of November it was announced in despatches from Cairo that Mahomed Ali was betrothed to an American lady whom he had met while traveling in Europe. It was stated that in order to procure the Khedive's consent to his marriage, he offered to renounce his right of succession to the Khediviate.

MR. HOLMES LOSES HIS WIFE.

While He Was Preaching She Ran Away and Went Back to Her Parents.

Richmond, Va. Dec. 4—The pretty 16-year-old wife of the Rev. G. W. Holmes ran away from a hotel in this city tonight while her husband was preaching in Manchester, across the James River from this city and taking a hack returned to her parents in Chesterfield county.

Mr. Holmes is an evangelist of mature age who for some time has been preaching in this section. He met and married a farmer's daughter last August. His wife says that he has been insanely jealous of her, and kept her locked in her room at the hotel much of the time and sometimes maltreated her. Several guests at the hotel assisted the wife to escape.

Program for Opening Day's Session.

Washington, Dec. 5—Chairman Dingley, of the ways and means committee, was among the arrivals today. After conferring with Chairman Cannon, of the committee on appropriations, the general program for the opening day of the house was mapped out.

Mr. Dingley was informed that two appropriation bills—pensions and legislative, executive and judicial—were practically completed. It was determined, therefore, to take up these at the outset. When they are out of the way, it is probable that the bankruptcy legislation will have a hearing.

Representative Bailey, the Democratic leader on the floor of the house, has arrived. He said it was too early to outline the course of the minority in the house.

The Annexation of Hawaii.

Washington, Dec. 5—Senator Davis, of Minnesota, chairman of the senate committee on foreign relations, was among the congressional arrivals yesterday. He stated that the Hawaiian annexation treaty would be taken up by the senate next Tuesday and be considered thereafter in executive session.

As to the outlook for the ratification of the treaty the senator declined to express an opinion, saying he had not canvassed the situation since the treaty was laid aside at the close of the extra session of congress.

Something to Depend On.

Mr. James Jones, of the drug firm of Jones & Son, Cowden, Ill., in speaking of Dr. King's New Discouery, says that last winter his wife was attacked with la grippe, and her case grew so serious that physicians at Cowden and Pana could do nothing for her. It seemed to develop into hasty consumption. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in store, and selling lots of it, he took a bottle home, and to the surprise of all she began to get better from first dose, and half dozen dollar bottles cured her sound and well. Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds is guaranteed to do this good work. Try it. Free trial bottles at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Constantinople, Dec. 4—The definite treaty of peace between the Sublime Porte and Greece has been signed this day.

Fields & Hanson's Minstrels.

Next Wednesday evening is the date announced by the management for Fields & Hanson's Minstrel Stars' initial performance in this city. The organization, while a new one, nevertheless comes to us with a general stamp of approval from wherever they have played thus far. For many years Fields & Hanson have been the recognized leading musical comedians of this and other lands, and have been the special, top salaried feature of the various leading organizations for the past decade.

In this, their own enterprise, they have surrounded themselves with a high grade corps of comedians, vocalists and musicians, an assemblage that will bear comparison with any, and a most enjoyable minstrel entertainment may be looked forward to.

The style you want, the durability you want and the price you can afford to pay are all considered and provided before you come. Its wonderful how good a shoe a very little money will buy now. That's because inventive genius and enterprise have made shoe making an exact science.
